It got you thinking and gave different ideas.

Gives tools to jar ideas when process becomes stagnant

Usually I feel tired and drained after being in the C.G. More Room all day (lack of windows, fresh air, natural light, etc.) but today I was so interested in what we were doing that I feel energized!! A great day. Thank you.

Would recommend to many employees.

Provided good workshop examples/materials.

New unique and very interesting ways of thinking were presented.

The course provided a large number of techniques thereby allowing participants to choose the most effective ones for themselves or their team.

He presented material in a clear easy to understand approach. He stopped if confusion arose and explained further until it was clear.

I feel I can use it off the job as well as on the job. The course gave me some personal growth.

Lots of opportunity to practice new concepts.

Good, enjoyed being presented the exercises for group work.

This information can be useful at any time, anywhere.

Good ideas for problem solving.

It stimulated my interest in breaking out of "rut" thinking.

New ideas. New ways of attacking problems.

Useful for personal and academic reasons.

Practical methods for solving a multitude of problems/areas. It was a workshop I needed.

Taught a lot of useful tools.

Dynamic format to teaching course.

Gave me some tools to try that I didn't have before. I'm looking forward to using them.

Great. - Excellent. - Enjoyable and interesting. - Very useful.

Thought provoking. Lots of new ideas. The day went fast and I enjoyed it very much.

Useful techniques to use in our organization.

I like Jim's easy style of presentation. Materials ready and well used and presented. I really enjoyed the day and felt I have increased my skill level.

Broad overall thinking was allowed and encouraged. Very useful. Needs to be expanded to the local level.

All info was useful - good to have materials for review. Very well presented. Very useful. Would have liked to hear more! Thanks.

Actually doing the activities is great!
